

Alaska Miner's Association

18th Biennial Conference

March 5-9, 2002

Fairbanks, Alaska

Westmark Hotel

*"The first one hundred years -
Where do we go from here?"*

Information

www.alaskaminers.org provides general Conference and contact information.

Vendors wishing to participate can use the back of the flyer to reserve booth space.

Additional information can be provided by contacting Rich Hughes (907) 451-0663 raha@ptialaska.net or Tom Bundtzen (907) 458-8951 bundtzen@mosquitonet.com

Field Trips

Pogo - March 5 or 9 ($375): Travel by bus and aircraft to the high-grade gold underground Teck/Cominco project; tour underground and receive detailed geology explanation. Tour accommodates only 9 conference registrants - first come, first served. Approx. 6 hrs.

Usibelli Coal Mine, Healy - March 5 or 9 ($40): Travel by bus to Healy. Tour includes a historical overview of Usibelli and coal mining, a walk through of facilities and field tour. Approx. 6 hrs.

Ft. Knox Gold - March 5 ($40): Tour Ft. Knox and True North projects of Fairbanks Gold Mining. Approx. 3 hrs.

UAF Museum/Advanced Instrument Lab - March 5 - ($25): bus travel to Museum/Lab. Slide show presentation. Approx. 1 hr.

Miscellaneous Events

Trade Fair

Gold Rooms and Birch Garden West, March 6 - 8 — visit vendor booths to review the latest in equipment, services and supply technology. Public invited.

Poster Session

Student and research papers. March 6-8, Rampart Room.

History Night

The Alaska Miners Hall of Fame will induct Frank Manley, Herman Tofty, Tom Aitken and Chester Purington. Learn the history of these early miners and about their contribution to our State. Public invited Thursday, March 7, Westmark Rampart Room at 7:30 pm.

Miners Banquet

Presentations and the Alaska Mineral & Energy Resource Education Raffle drawings. Public invited. Friday, March 8 Westmark. 6 pm cocktails, 7 pm banquet.

Technical Sessions

Mineral Exploration I - March 6: current Alaska projects' status, geology, exploration concepts and more.

Energy & Infrastructure - March 6: availability, options and challenges of these requirements.

Industrial Minerals - March 7: Industrial mineral potential, exploration concepts and evaluation in Alaska.

Production & Regulations - March 7: Updates on existing operation, permitting and regulations.

Mineral Exploration II - March 8: Continuation of Mineral Exploration I.

Short Courses

Industrial Minerals, Tom Bundtzen - March 5: a short course intended to explain the sources of and uses of industrial minerals in Alaska; includes literature review.

Mining & the Internet, Rajivi Ganguli - March 9: computer lab involvement in use of the internet in mining.

Luncheons

Open to the public - $18

March 6 - TBA

March 7 - TBA

March 8 - Reg Howe, Godlen Sextant "Gold Price Fixing Lawsuit Status"

